Bible Studies - All are invited to Parson's home each Monday at 6:30 (unless otherwise announced) for an hour of study and discussion.

Thank you to each one who has furnished snacks for the coffee/cookie table. Everyone enjoys this! Sign-up papers for snacks are on the table in front of the mailboxes.

Children's Church is held each Sunday morning after the children's story for preschoolers and up to third grade. Thank you to Ellen Colclessers and all her helpers who make children's church a great experience for our young saints!

Congratulations to all 4H'ers from Pleasant Chapel! We hope you enjoyed all your projects. We know you worked hard. Also thank you to all the 4H junior leaders that worked and helped in any way before, during, and after the 4H fair.

PC Women's Group

The Pleasant Chapel women met July 13th at 1:00 in the church fellowship room. Jill Law was hostess for the meeting.

Our program was a very interesting travelogue presented to us by Tammy Thornburg and Sherry and Bruce Garrell about their trip this past spring to Israel. They showed us pictures and told us many interesting things they did and saw on their 10-day trip.

A big thank you to Tammy and her friends for the program.

Ice-Cream Social On Sunday August 28th at 6:00, we will have an ice-cream social at the church.

We will celebrate “back-to-school (college) and simply enjoy some fellowship time together.

Please plan on joining the PC family for some fun and great eats!

Great Work PC! The church collected a lot of supplies to be taken to Kentucky to the community of Lois Sluss (Gayl Husband’s mother). Family members and friends have lost a lot in the flooding that has recently taken place.

The food, water, cleaning supplies, etc. that were collected will be distributed to Gayl’s family as needed, then to those in their church family.

Gayl and Troy will be taking these supplies to them and most likely making additional trips to help with the great work that needs to be accomplished there.

In our worship services recently, we have been talking about how we, as Christ followers, can better speak about the biblical worldview. How can we better communicate God’s truth to people in our world who simply need to hear about Him? I found this short article that is a simplification of our world view. Perhaps you can personalize it to help you be a better communicator of God’s Truth.

How To Articulate a Christian Worldview in Four Easy Steps

One God. We worship one, personal, knowable, holy God. There are not two gods or ten gods or ten million gods, only one. He has always been and will always be. He is not a product of our mind or imagination. He really exists and we can know him because he has spoken to us in his word.

Two kinds of being. We are not gods. God is not found in the trees or the wind or in us. He created the universe and cares for all that he has made, but he is distinct from his creation. The story of the world is not about being released from the illusion of our existence or discovering the god within. The story is about God, the people he made, and how the creatures can learn to delight in, trust in, and obey their Creator.

Three persons. The one God exists eternally in three persons. The Father is God. The Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, is God. The Holy Spirit, the Spirit of the Father and the Son, is also God. And yet these three—equal in glory, rank, and power—are three persons. The doctrine of the Trinity helps explain how there can be true unity and diversity in our world. It also shows that our God is a relational God.

For us. Something happened in history that changed the world. The Son of God came into the world as a man, perfectly obeyed his Father, fulfilled Israel’s purpose, succeeded where Adam failed, and began the process of reversing the curse. Jesus Christ died for the sins of the world. He rose again from the dead on the third day. By faith in him our sins can be forgiven and we can be assured of living forever with God and one day being raised from the dead like Christ.

Obviously, this doesn’t say everything that needs to be said about the Bible or Christianity. But I find it to be a helpful way to get a handle on some of the most important distinctives of a Christian worldview. Feel free to steal it and use it for yourself. It’s as easy as 1, 2, 3, 4.

My hope and prayer is that someday again little children will be able to search and find adult leaders to emulate and follow. They need to believe.

My hope and prayer is that within our lifetime we will see bigotry replaced with brotherhood, resentment replaced with respect, and humanity emerge intact.

My hope and prayer is that children will learn that school and education are the foundation for a complete, creative, and meaningful life.

My hope and prayer is that teachers will restore to the children the words dedication and selflessness to their lives, thus giving to the world a 50-50 chance at survival through the generations they will teach to be leaders, innovators, and contributors.

And finally, I hope and pray that both God and country will find their way back to the classroom, for only with profound belief in both can there be a future for anyone anywhere. – Basilla Neilan
