PC Women's Group

The Pleasant Chapel women met on Wednesday, September 14th. Six ladies had an enjoyable trip traveling to Winona Lake.

After arriving, we went to a craft shop and spent time making bracelets. They looked very nice! We then ate lunch at the boathouse on Winona Lake.

The weather was nice and we enjoy the scenery and visiting some shops close to the lake.

Starting for home, we found an ice cream shop and topped off the enjoyable day.

October 2 Block Party.

Think of who you could invite from our neighborhood, who perhaps has no home church, to this event.

No charge, chili dogs, chips, and slushies.

Gonna be fun!

October 9th is Pleasant Chapel Rally Day. This year Debbie Mills will be leading worship through song and word. From her website:

Debbie is a Nashville recording artist, having completed her second Album in Spring of 2015, along with her first single "And I Know" which hit # 2 in the top 100 songs on FM Radio as well as #3 in the top 100 songs on the AM

Radio in the months of June and September of 2016. Her single is also available on iTunes. Having completed her fourth Album this past

April, she also has recorded a video available on YouTube titled, "Barefoot on the Blade", a song about letting go of anger from painful experiences and giving it to God. A song from her newest released Album, "In the Pages", is currently being played by multiple radio stations in the South.

Debbie is a member of "Lighthouse Gospel Music Association, LGMA", "International Country Gospel Music Association, ICGMA", and "Country Gospel Music Association, CGMA". In 2018 Debbie received an award for "Most Inspirational Gospel Female Singer of the Year" from Crimson Music Awards.

Recently, Debbie has been involved with Southern Gospel Conventions including Murfreesboro, Tennessee, Taylor, Michigan, Marion, Indiana, and West Plains, Missouri. Her songs can be heard throughout the United States, Canada, and Ireland on many Gospel Radio Stations.

Debbie resides in Montrose, Pa. where she lives with her husband Fred.

They have been married 37 years. We are looking forward to Debbie Mills' ministry.

Schedule:

9:30-10:00 Social Time, Pie and Pictures. Homemade pies will be upstairs. There will be 2 photography locations for you to have your family or individual photo taken. There is no charge for this. These photos will be used in the 2023 directory and available to you for your own use.

Pie will be available before worship and after the meal. What a deal!

10:00- 11:00 Worship

11:00 Meal (and more pie)

Be thinking about inviting someone to Rally Day this year!

Place of Grace monthly collects items to be used in their women's ministry in Huntington. We will be helping with this by collecting paper goods and cleaning supplies. If you would like to donate and of these items, bring them to the church in October.

The chocolate chip cookies

An elderly man lay dying in his bed. Suddenly death's agony was pushed aside as he smelled the aroma of his favorite homemade chocolate chip cookies wafting up the stairs.

Gathering his remaining strength, he lifted himself up from the bed. Leaning against the wall, he slowly made his way out of the bedroom, and with intense concentration, supported himself down the stairs, gripping the railing with both hands. In labored breath, he leaned against the door frame, gazing wide-eyed into the kitchen. There, spread out on the kitchen table were literally HUNDREDS of his favorite chocolate chip cookies!

Was it heaven? Or, was it one final act of heroic love from his devoted wife, seeing to it that he left this world a happy man? Mustering one great final effort, he threw himself toward the table, landing on his knees in a rumpled posture, one hand on the edge of the table. The aged and withered hand quivering made its way to a cookie near the edge of the table; feeling the warm soft dough actually made the pain of his bones subside for a moment. His parched lips parted; the wondrous taste of the cookie was already in his mouth; seemingly bringing him back to life.

What, then, was this sudden stinging that caused his hand to recoil? He looked to see his wife, still holding the spatula she had just used to smack his hand.
